

Alberta Ombudsman
Statement of Remuneration
For January 1 - December 31, 2015

The Public Sector Compensation Transparency Act requires public sector bodies to publicly disclose all remuneration paid to employees earning more than $125,000 in a calendar year. This disclosure is done by publishing a statement of remuneration which sets out the required information for each employee over the earning threshold and must be published by June 30 each year for compensation paid in the previous calendar year.

Public Sector Body	Name	Position	Year	Compensation <sup>2</sup>	Other <sup>3</sup>	Severance
